Lighting up the Evening with Delightful Folks

MAY 2013

Saturday, May 18th, Spring Formal—Mark your calendar!

Rita Hayworth 1918-1987

Georgous to look at, delightful to hold, but you'd never guess that her real name was Margarita Carmen Cansino. Her father was born in Castilleja de la Cuesta, Andalusia, Spain. In 1917 he married Volga Hayworth, his partner in the Ziegfeld Follies, and they had three children, Margarita Carmen, Eduardo Jr., and Vernon. After she began making films in Hollywood, Margarita Carmen Cansino would become the famous actress and dancer Rita Hayworth, taking her professional surname from a variant of her mother's maiden name. Her father, Eduardo was a dancer as was his father before him. He immigrated from Spain in 1913. Rita's mother met Eduardo in 1916 and were married the following year. Rita, herself, was trained as a dancer in order to follow in her family's foot-

Happy Mothers' Day

Adrienne and Bob Meehan are beyond joyful as their daughter, Dee Dee, was married on April 19th to her long time 'guy.'

Bob was thrilled to be "Father of the Bride."

My thought for today: "You have to be patient to learn to be patient."

Love,

Guest Sponsors: Please provide your guests couples' addresses to Ivan Bishop and/or Paul Liles for the Club records.

"Don't worry about old age—it doesn't last that long."

PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

One thing that is certain in life is that things change. The older we get, the more we wish things wouldn't change and we resent it when they do. Just look at your baby pictures and see how much you've changed.

Remember when you collected all those 33 and 1/3 record albums and when CD's came along, you couldn't play them. Try to buy a VCR player these days for all the tapes you saved.

The same thing goes for cost of goods and services. Remember when popcorn in a movie theater cost 10 cents a bag? Malted milkshakes were 25 cents. Each generation looks back in time and says, "Those were the good ole days!"

On the other hand, we are creators of or own "good ole days" by developing good friends, good health, and maintaining a good positive attitude, no matter what.

Change is happening with our venue locations to have Starlighter dance events, and food costs are rising. For instance, Foxfire Restaurant, one of our favorite Starlighter venues, will no longer be available for us to use do to their change of circumstances.

Change in pricing our events is inevitable since rising food costs are being passed on our way when we book future events. Just remember, Starlighters has faced change for every one of their sixty one years of existence. We belong to a wonderful dance club and we don't Give a person a fish and you feed them for a day. Teach a person to use the internet and they won't bother you for weeks, months, maybe years.
