Ginger Rogers 1911-1995

Ginger Rogers was an American actress, dancer, and singer who appeared in film, and on stage, radio, and television throughout much of the 20th century.

During her long career, she made a total of 73 films, and was best known as Fred Astaire's romantic interest and dancing partner in a series of ten Hollywood musical films that revolutionized the genre. She achieved great success on her own in a variety of film roles and won the Academy Award for Best Actress for her performance in Kitty Foyle (1940). She ranks #14 on the AFI's 100 Years...100 Stars list of actress screen legends.

As a proud Navy vet, our own Ivan Bishop gave a talk in September at the Tustin Library on "Sea Power" to a standing-room-only crowd. His talk focused on the historical struggle of nations to control the oceans and the struggle of our US Navy with budget cutting and the effects of sequester. Thank you Ivan.

I understand Gray Kilmer is on the mend and is able to go to work. Keep it up big guy. We miss you guys.

On a lighter note, I, along with our dance group want to thank Leon Brander and Marcia for being a treasure of a Treasurer for all these years...Now I know who to go to when my check book doesn't balance.

I wondered why the baseball was getting bigger. Then it hit me !

Guest Sponsors: Please provide your guests couples' addresses to Ivan Bishop and/or Paul Liles for the Club records.
