PRESIDENTS MESSAGE...

We are now into the holiday season with Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas just around the corner.

Fall has arrived but it forgot to bring the weather along with it! Our dancing is COOL so perhaps that will help lower the temperatures.

Our next dance features Howard Solomon and is a semi-formal affair with emphasis on celebrating Halloween.

We enjoyed Sandy and Bob as guests and hope they hurry back.

Several of our members are going to the Elks Santa Ana Halloween Ball on the 31st. That could be scary!

As always, please take some time and ask friends to join us and become members of the club.

Remember – “True love is like ghosts, which everyone talks about but few have seen. ~ Anonymous.”

We are looking forward to seeing you October 16th and bring your scariest ghost stories to share!

*Larry Isham,
President*

Dancing the night away

DO YOU REMEMBER?

When I was a little kid, there was one house in my neighborhood which I both loved and feared trick-or-treating at. Just two blocks over from mine, this home was an unassuming bungalow 364 days of the year.

Come Halloween night, however, and it was transformed.

The family who lived here clearly loved Halloween, and it showed. On walking up the driveway trick-or-treaters were greeted with the usual assortment of cobwebs, tombstones and creepy music.

After knocking (tentatively) on the door, you'd wait with bated breath until it began to open ever-so-slowly, a mangled warlock's hand emerging through the door frame.

This (fake) hand in fact belonged to a friendly, candy-touting suburban dad, but before this was revealed, you were never entirely sure that you weren't about to be snatched off the porch and locked up in a dungeon of terror.

Did you have a favorite Halloween house as a kid? What made it so scary/special?

Bits And Pieces

Bernie celebrated his 94th birthday with Donnis and the Liles' and dined on extra-hot jambalaya.

The Roberts just returned from a two week vacation in Florida enjoying mild temperatures and a lot of sun!

We are still looking for a Secretary for the club. It simply involves takes notes at the 30 minute meeting and writing them up. Easy Pizzy!

UPCOMING DANCE SCHEDULE

11/20/2015 – Sam Conte

12/18/2015 – The Time Machine

BRING A FRIEND!

To keep the club thriving, we are always looking for new friends to join us and participate in our great parties!
